Joint IMF-Indonesia High-Level Conference International Taxation in Asia : Issues and The Way Forward

Jakarta, 12 Juli 2017 – Minister of Finance of the Republic of Indonesia Sri Mulyani Indrawati opened the Joint IMF-Indonesia High-Level Conference which is held on 12-13 July 2017 in Mulia Hotel, Jakarta. The conference themed "International Taxation in Asia: Issues and The Way Forward" is attended by Deputy Managing Director of IMF Mitsuhiro Furusawa, Minister of Finance of Malaysia II Datuk Johari bin Abdul Ghani, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Strategy and Finance of Korea Yoo Il-ho, Senior Minister of State for Law and Finance Singapore Indranee Rajah, Member of the Australian House of Representatives and Former Deputy Prime Minister and Federal Treasures Australia Wayne Swan MP, several high level officials from Asian countries, and experts for international taxation from around the world.

Joint IMF-Indonesia High-Level Conference is forum for policy makers to discuss on issues related to domestic resource mobilization by strengthening tax system, Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (BEPS) Action Plan, Automatic Exchange of Information (AEOI), and tax incentives. This conference is part of IMF-World Bank Annual Meeting 2018 sequence which will take place in October 2018.

In her speech in this forum, Minister of Finance Sri Mulyani delivered her views on the significance of strengthening tax system to boost domestic resource mobilization to achieve national development priorities which is in line with 2030 Sustainable Development Goals. System strengthening involves tax policy and administration reform, including international tax. In addition, Minister of Finance Sri Mulyani hoped for enhancement of regional team work, especially in automatic exchange of information for tax purposes, and encouraged other countries which have not yet implemented BEPS Action Plan and AEOI to start thinking of using these tools to create a fairer and more level playing field.
